Stand in front of your favourite painting and use the chatterbox to look at the details! Choose words that describe what you are looking at.

Name of the painting: _____

The first word I chose was: _____ The second word I chose was: _____

My answer to the question inside the chatterbox:

Think about these questions and write/draw your answers below.

- Why do you think the paintings were chosen for St John's Upper Norwood?
- What story do you think the artist is trying to tell in the painting?

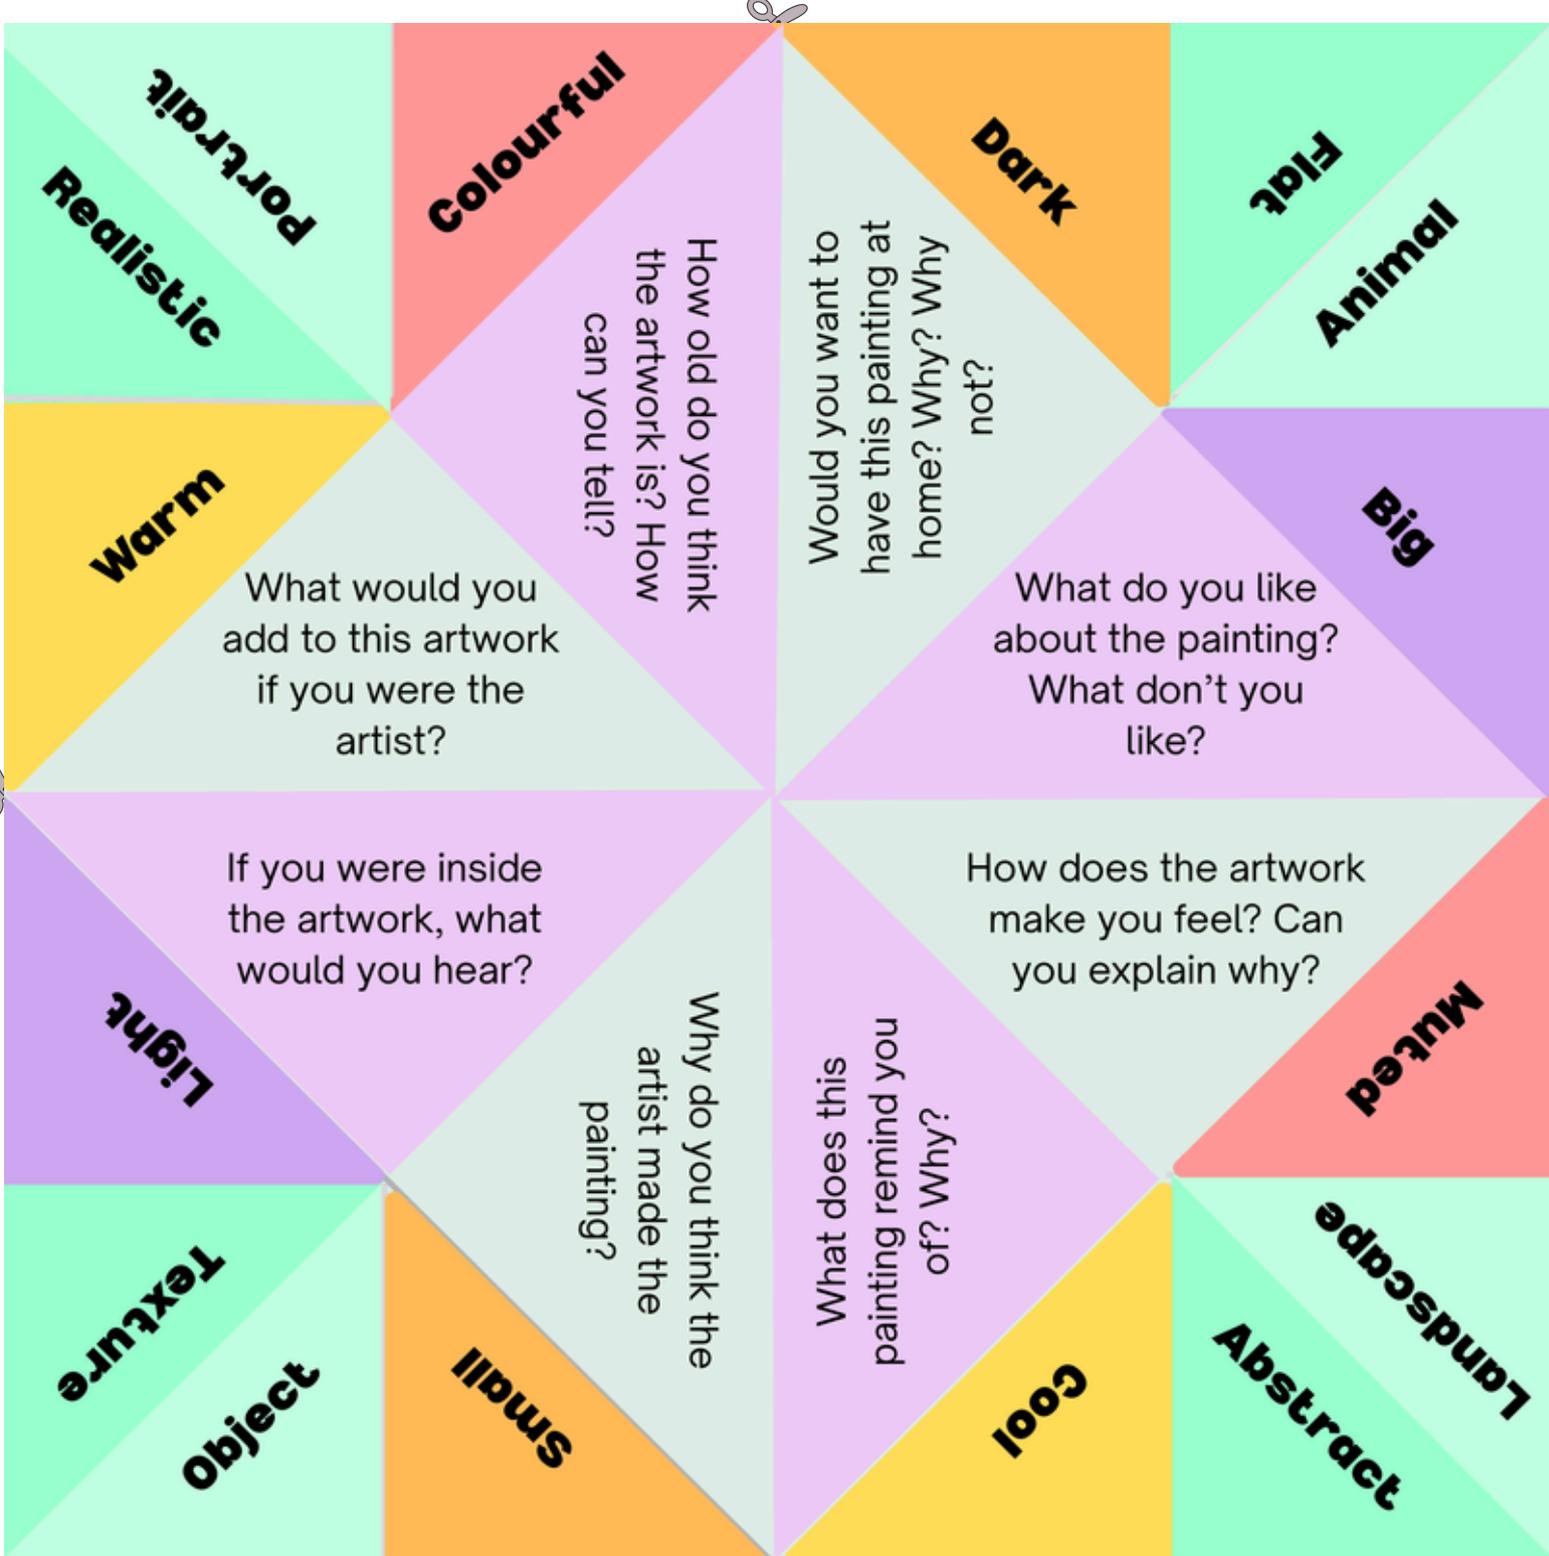

Piero della Francesca, The Baptism of Christ, probably about 1437–1445. Bought, 1861 © The National Gallery, London

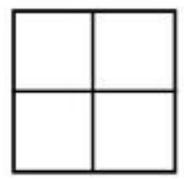

Hendrick ter Brugghen, The Concert, about 1626. Bought with contributions from the National Heritage Memorial Fund, the Art Fund and The Pilgrim Trust, 1983 © The National Gallery, London

How to fold

Cut out the square and fold in half both ways. Then unfold colour-side down.

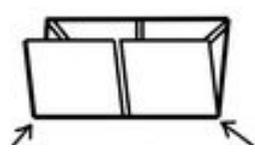

Fold all four corners in towards the middle.

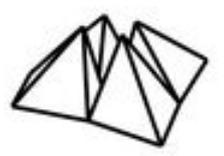

Turn over and fold all four corners into the middle again.

Fold in half.

Pinch at corners and push inwards.
